

Released: 2014

Key attributes: Georgia Dawn™ is most valuable for the very early ripening of the variety. The plants have good vigour and very good fruit quality.

Southern Highbush Blueberry

Plant characteristics

- Upright, vigorous with narrow crown
- 7-12 days earlier than Star
- Early flowering – February/March (in Georgia, USA)
- Ripening late April/early May (in Georgia, USA)
- 300-400 chilling hours (Temperature under 7C°)
- Reported yield: 18 tons / hectare
- Suitable for high-density planting

Fruit characteristics

- Mid-Large berry size, typically 14-20mm
- Good fruit scar and good firmness
- Blue to light blue colour berries
- Excellent flavour – ideal for fresh market
- Brix measured on average of 13.9%

 Very Early Season Variety

© Copyright Plants365 Ltd

Georgia USA Evaluation Results:

Comparative Results
Selection	Chill Hours	Berry Size	Berry Scar	Berry Color	Berry Firmness	Berry Flavor
Georgia Dawn	300	7.6	7.3	7.4	7.5	7.7
Star	400	7	7	7.5	7.2	7.2
Suzi Blue	300	7.5	7	7	7.5	6.8

